

Will of Thomas Dandridge Westcott Barton 23 March 1721

to my Loving Wife Mary all my Farme and Twelve Yard Land in Westcott Barton and midle Barton untill my Sonn Thomas Dandridge shall attaine his age of One and Twenty years She finding my Children good and sufficient meat drink washing Lodging Education and aparrell. When Thomas is 21 the farme and 12 yard land is bequeathed to him he paying out of the premises to said wife Mary the yearly sum of £20 to be paid quarterly

To my four daughters Martha Mary Elizabeth and Anne £100 each on respective ages of 21 years or days of marriage which shall first happen to be paid by son Thomas. If a daughter dies money to be shared between others

Joint Executors wife Mary and father in law John Buswell

Mark of Thomas Dandridge

Witnessed Nath: Apletree Thomas Dodd Robert Buswell Jun

Probate 5 May 1722

Oxfordshire Archives WI 125/1/24

DAWES William, labourer, MB, will 13[?] Jan 1781, 1810, OA WBd 101.485,109.92; 231/1/6

Extrix Mary Dawes, wife

Bequests Mary Dawes, wife, leasehold estate of 2 messuages in MB one occupied by myself the other William Huckell

Mary Dawes, wife, residue for life. Afterwards, messuages and household goods to Ann Dawes, my daughter. If she dies without issue to my 3 grandchildren William Dawes, son of William Dawes living at Neithrop, William Dawes, son of Edward Dawes living at Souldern and William Dawes son of Joseph Dawes living at Wo[o]tton to be equally divided between them

Signed William Dawes[mark]

Witnessed Benjamin Ed Smith, Eslebeth Reeves, Thomas Thompson

Note. Letters of administration 6 Oct 1810. Will left unadministered by Mary Dawes widow.

Administration granted to Ann Busby, widow, the daughter of deceased and residuary legatee. The widow does not appear to have proved the will