

William Taylor. 5 April 1777. Will.

5th April 1777. Attested Copy Will of William Taylor whereby after giving certain pecuniary legacies and devising certain real estate he gave and devised unto his son William Taylor all his real estates lands commons messuages and tenements lying and being in the towns fields hamlets and precincts of Westcott Barton and Middle Barton in the County of Oxford and the rents that were due for the said estates at the time of his decease To hold the same with their appurtenances unto the said testators son William Taylor his heirs and assigns for ever and the said testator appointed his son James Taylor sole executor of that his will

Taken from Abstract of Mr. Thomas Bedwin's Title to a Messuage Garden and Hereditaments at Westcott Barton in the County of Oxford. 1839

[Brookside, Enstone Hill]

In possession of Mr. P. Bauckham

William Taylor. 28 October 1828. Will.

28th October 1828. Copy Will of William Taylor of Sandford House in the County of Oxford Esquire whereby he gave and devised unto his cousin the Rev. Joseph Bowdon of Sedgley in the County of Stafford all that his messuage or tenement with the offices outhouses barns stables and buildings yards and gardens to the same adjoining or belonging situate and being in Westcott Barton in the County of Oxford and ^{now} then in the occupation of William West And also all those several closes or inclosed grounds farms lands and premiss to the said messuage or tenement belonging or held and occupied therewith situate and being within the parishes or liberties of Westcott Barton and Middle Barton or one of them in the County of Oxon also in the occupation of the said William West And also the cottage or tenement buildings and premises in Westcott Barton aforesaid to the ^{old} siad farm and premises adjoining with the appurtenances To hold the same unto the said Joseph Bowdon his heirs and assigns for ever And the testator appointed Edward Marshall Hacker George North Robinson and Harriet Hannah Holton [?] executors and executrix of his will

Taken from Abstract of Mr. Thomas Bedwin's Title to a Messuage Garden and Hereditaments at Westcott Barton in the County of Oxford. 1839

[Brookside, Enstone Hill]

In possession of Mr. P. Bauckham